And slights of art and feats of strength went round; And still as each Swart Auburn, loveliest viage of plain, Where health and plenty sports are fled, and yearly charms with drawn; Amidst your bowers blest ha...
3.30pm Official Opening by Tom McGuire, Head of RTE Radio 1. From Longford, he was educated at St Mel’s College, Longford and Patrician College, Maynooth. His career as a journalist began in 1990 with Radio Kerry, where he was employed as a current affairs reporter and later as a presenter. He has been the Head of News at RTE in Cork studios where his roles included those of radio presenter, radio producer and presenter at the ‘Nationwide’ television programme. He won the PPI Documentary of the Year Award in 2004 for ‘The Siege of Jadotville’. Among his production credits are the ‘Grassroots’ series on local government and the RTE Radio 1 series ‘The Constituencies’. He has been head of RTE Radio 1 since 2014. Tom McGuire is Head of RTE Radio 1. From Longford, he was educated at St Mel’s College, Longford and Patrician College, Maynooth. His career as a journalist began in 1990 with Radio Kerry, where he was employed as a current affairs reporter and later as a presenter. He has been the Head of News at RTE in Cork studios where his roles included those of radio presenter, radio producer and presenter at the ‘Nationwide’ television programme. He won the PPI Documentary of the Year Award in 2004 for ‘The Siege of Jadotville’. Among his production credits are the ‘Grassroots’ series on local government and the RTE Radio 1 series ‘The Constituencies’. He has been head of RTE Radio 1 since 2014. Tom McGuire is Head of RTE Radio 1. From Longford, he was educated at St Mel’s College, Longford and Patrician College, Maynooth. His career as a journalist began in 1990 with Radio Kerry, where he was employed as a current affairs reporter and later as a presenter. He has been the Head of News at RTE in Cork studios where his roles included those of radio presenter, radio producer and presenter at the ‘Nationwide’ television programme. He won the PPI Documentary of the Year Award in 2004 for ‘The Siege of Jadotville’. Among his production credits are the ‘Grassroots’ series on local government and the RTE Radio 1 series ‘The Constituencies’. He has been head of RTE Radio 1 since 2014. Tom McGuire is Head of RTE Radio 1. From Longford, he was educated at St Mel’s College, Longford and Patrician College, Maynooth. His career as a journalist began in 1990 with Radio Kerry, where he was employed as a current affairs reporter and later as a presenter. He has been the Head of News at RTE in Cork studios where his roles included those of radio presenter, radio producer and presenter at the ‘Nationwide’ television programme. He won the PPI Documentary of the Year Award in 2004 for ‘The Siege of Jadotville’. Among his production credits are the ‘Grassroots’ series on local government and the RTE Radio 1 series ‘The Constituencies’. He has been head of RTE Radio 1 since 2014. Tom McGuire is Head of RTE Radio 1. From Longford, he was educated at St Mel’s College, Longford and Patrician College, Maynooth. His career as a journalist began in 1990 with Radio Kerry, where he was employed as a current affairs reporter and later as a presenter. He has been the Head of News at RTE in Cork studios where his roles included those of radio presenter, radio producer and presenter at the ‘Nationwide’ television programme. He won the PPI Documentary of the Year Award in 2004 for ‘The Siege of Jadotville’. Among his production credits are the ‘Grassroots’ series on local government and the RTE Radio 1 series ‘The Constituencies’. He has been head of RTE Radio 1 since 2014. Tom McGuire is Head of RTE Radio 1. From Longford, he was educated at St Mel’s College, Longford and Patrician College, Maynooth. His career as a journalist began in 1990 with Radio Kerry, where he was employed as a current affairs reporter and later as a presenter. He has been the Head of News at RTE in Cork studios where his roles included those of radio presenter, radio producer and presenter at the ‘Nationwide’ television programme. He won the PPI Documentary of the Year Award in 2004 for ‘The Siege of Jadotville’. Among his production credits are the ‘Grassroots’ series on local government and the RTE Radio 1 series ‘The Constituencies’. He has been head of RTE Radio 1 since 2014. Tom McGuire is Head of RTE Radio 1. From Longford, he was educated at St Mel’s College, Longford and Patrician College, Maynooth. His career as a journalist began in 1990 with Radio Kerry, where he was employed as a current affairs reporter and later as a presenter. He has been the Head of News at RTE in Cork studios where his roles included those of radio presenter, radio producer and presenter at the ‘Nationwide’ television programme. He won the PPI Documentary of the Year Award in 2004 for ‘The Siege of Jadotville’. Among his production credits are the ‘Grassroots’ series on local government and the RTE Radio 1 series ‘The Constituencies’. He has been head of RTE Radio 1 since 2014. Tom McGuire is Head of RTE Radio 1. From Longford, he was educated at St Mel’s College, Longford and Patrician College, Maynooth. His career as a journalist began in 1990 with Radio Kerry, where he was employed as a current affairs reporter and later as a presenter. He has been the Head of News at RTE in Cork studios where his roles included those of radio presenter, radio producer and presenter at the ‘Nationwide’ television programme. He won the PPI Documentary of the Year Award in 2004 for ‘The Siege of Jadotville’. Among his production credits are the ‘Grassroots’ series on local government and the RTE Radio 1 series ‘The Constituencies’. He has been head of RTE Radio 1 since 2014.